

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

19th July 2024

This letter is to recognise that Vinayak Goel has attended the Young Investors' Fellowship Programme organised by The Finance and Investment Cell, Hansraj College and held from 1st July 2024 to 12th July 2024.

Vinayak displayed a strong passion for learning across various domains, from writing and reading to researching. His curiosity was evident to all, and his eagerness to expand his knowledge was widely admired. He approached group activities and competitions with great enthusiasm and a strong desire to succeed. He secured the first position and showed unparalleled skills in solving the case problem.

We commend Vinayak for his commitment and dedication, which were evident in his successful participation and performance in various peer-group interactions and skill-based competitions. His effective use of acquired skills in every endeavor showcased an impressive range of abilities. We are proud to be associated with Vinayak Goel and wholeheartedly recommend their candidature for all future engagements. Our best wishes accompany them for their continued journey of success.
